

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

The Abba Eban Institute for Diplomacy & Foreign Relations 2023-24 Annual Internship Program

The Abba Eban Institute offers an annual internship program for passionate RUNI students considering a career in diplomacy and international relations. Over the course of the 2023-24 academic year, interns will have the opportunity to deepen their understanding of regional dynamics and obtain an insider's view of international diplomacy against the backdrop of the recent conflicts in the Middle East.

Our Interns

The Abba Eban Institute is a proactive research center that studies and crafts innovative diplomacy. Our interns play an important role in fulfilling this mission by assisting in our various programs and research projects, all while receiving close mentorship from the Institute's senior staff.

The Policy & Technology Program

Interns will assist in conducting policy- and action-oriented research and take part in proactive public campaigns.

The Asia Policy Program

Interns will assist in conducting policy research, strategic assessments, and network building with our Asian partners.

WHERE DO YOU SEE YOURSELF?

The Media Operations Department

Interns will gather and analyze information for use in our press activities and online publications, and help create content for new media operations.

The Arena: Diplomacy & Foreign Relations Magazine

Interns will assist in critiquing, editing, and copywriting articles, uploading content to the magazine's website, and expanding its online presence and reach.

Israel & the Arab Gulf Program

Interns will help research and promote economic, cultural, and political relations with key actors in the Arab Gulf region, against the backdrop of regional and global tensions stemming from the 2023 Israel-Hamas War.

REQUIREMENTS AND SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

General requirements

- Registered undergraduate students (3rd or 4th year) and graduate students from all Reichman University schools.
- Excellent research skills.
- Deep knowledge and understanding of current affairs, global trends, and international diplomacy.
- High-level English fluency.
- Commitment to 6-8 hours weekly; available for work during both fall and spring semesters.
- Mandatory and active participation in all program meetings and workshops during the year.

Accreditation:

If they have not previously completed an accredited internship, students can choose to intern for 2 academic credits, subject to approval by their academic track coordinators. Alternatively, they may opt to participate in the program as a non-credit internship.

How to apply:

Candidates must upload their CV, a short cover letter, and an academic writing sample – all in English – to the link below. Submission guidelines can be found on the internships page on our website. The application deadline is Wednesday, January 3rd, 2024, at 1pm Israel Time.

Suitable candidates will be invited to an interview with our staff shortly after the submission deadline, and may also be asked to complete a task relevant to their desired position. Admission to the program will be decided based on availability and the candidate's skills and merit.

The internship program will begin January 25th, 2024.
